We the Subscribers for the mutual Relief & Assistance of each other in Cases of Distress or Disaster by Fire, do agree to form ourselves into a Fire Club under the following Regulations viz:

1st. The Club shall not consist of more then Thirty Members, & when any new Member is proposed, it shall be done to the Steward, who shall notifie the Members of it, on the back of their Notifications for the Quarterly meetings: such members admittance shall be by unanimous Vote of the members present.

2dly Each Member shall be provided with Four good Leather Buckets, and four Bags, of three quarters of a yard wide, and one yard and an half long, with his Name on each; to be kept at their Dwelling Houses or Lodgings, & not to be used either of them on any other Occasion then Fires: On penalty for Neglect of either or each Article four Shillings.

3dly That a Steward be annually chosen for the Collecting of Fines, & keeping an Account of the Disposition of the Same, which shall be rendered to the Company at their Quarterly meetings, wch. shall be on the Third Wednesday Evenings of the Months of January, April, July, & October: to be held in such place & provided for in such manner as he shall think proper, he notifieing the Company previous to said Meetings.

4thly That a Deputy Steward be annually chosen, to assist the Steward, or to Officiate in his absence or Sickness.

5thly The Steward or his Deputy, with any two of the Members, at his desire, shall once every Quarter Inspect the Bags and Buckets of each member, and if on such inspection, they shall be found to be so much out of order, as to be unfit for the Service they were designed for, or shall appear to have been otherways made use of: each Delinquent shall in that case pay to the Steward a fine of Four Shillings.

6thly Any Member Refuseing or Neglecting to attend the Steward or his Deputy at their desire after twenty four Hours notice to view the Bags & Buckets, shall pay to the Steward, a fine of two Shillings; unless they can give a reason satisfactory to the Company: the Visiting to be by the members in the Order they are in by these Articles, so that

7thly Each member shall acquaint himself with the Respective

Respective places of abode, Stores, Shops, or other places where the Interest of any of the members may be disposed, and in case of Fire they shall repair as soon as may be to the Place most Exposed to Danger, & use their utmost Endeavours to Extinguish the Fire and to remove the Effects of any members that may be Likely to Suffer, to places of Safety.

8thly A Watch word shall be agreed on at the Annuall meeting for Chuseing a Steward, & entred in our Book, & to be made use of by our members at a Fire, for the greater safety of the Effects of any members that may be carry'd away from a Fire.

9thly If any members shall be found to be absent in case of Fire and cannot render such Reasons as shall be Judged Just by the Company: shall be Subject to the Penelty of Six Shillings.

10thly In case of the Loss of any Bags or Buckets, belonging to any of the members, it shall be repaired by the Club provided they immediately Advertize the same, & take other proper methods to have them found.

11thly Each member shall keep a fair copy of the Articles and produce them at each Quarterly meeting; under Penelty of one Shilling.

12thly Every member shall be Obliged to give his attendance at each Quarterly meeting: and inasmuch as the said Quarterly meetings are equally as Beneficial to all the members, as well Absent as present: it is agreed that every member who shall be absent at the Time of said meetings, whether in the Province or not, shall be subject to the Charge of Five Shillings at each of the Quarterly meetings, as his proportion of the Expence of this Club at said meetings; unless he previously declare to the Steward that he would Considered no longer as a member of the Club.

13thly That if any member shall Absent himself Four Nights Successively, he shall be called on by the Steward to know his Reason, and if he declines being a member any longer, his account shall be Tendered him.

14th Ly Ten members being Present shall be deemed a Forum to transact the Business of the Company: and it is agreed that a major Vote of the members present be Desisive.

15th Ly All Fines are to be applyed to the Repairing any Loss or Damage sustained in Bags or Buckets, and to defraying the Expences of said Club at their meetings.

In Testimony to our Consent to the foregoing Articles, first Instituted and done at Boston N.E. the 5th March 1753. and now revised & Amended, we have hereunto sett our hands, and for the due performance of the same, we Bind ourselves each to other in the Penal Sum of Five Pounds.
